Cycling at it's Best

After six days of top-level international competition, the 2006 IPC Cycling World Championships have come to an end. The Championships provided an opportunity for the best cyclists with a disability in the world to hit the track and the road for a shot at the World Champion titles.

Following a bonanza of 17 world records on the Track in the first three days, there were also some highly competitive races on the road. For example, in the women's Handcycling Division B-C Road Race Monique Van de Vorst (NED) crossed the line only milliseconds ahead of second place winner Andrea Eskau (GER). In the men's Handcycling Division B Road Race Stefan Baeumann (GER), Max Weber (GER), Marcel Pipek (CZE) and Tobias Knecht (GER) arrived within milliseconds of each other to take first to fourth place respectively.

The men's Road Races in the LC1, LC2 and LC3 sport classes were all strongly contested as first, second and third place came down to a millisecond difference, showing the elite nature of the competition.

This was the final World Championships to be held under the auspices of IPC Cycling, as a transfer of governance of Cycling for athletes with a disability will likely occur by the end of the year, with the International Cycling Union (UCI) assuming responsibility.
